

Fig. 1

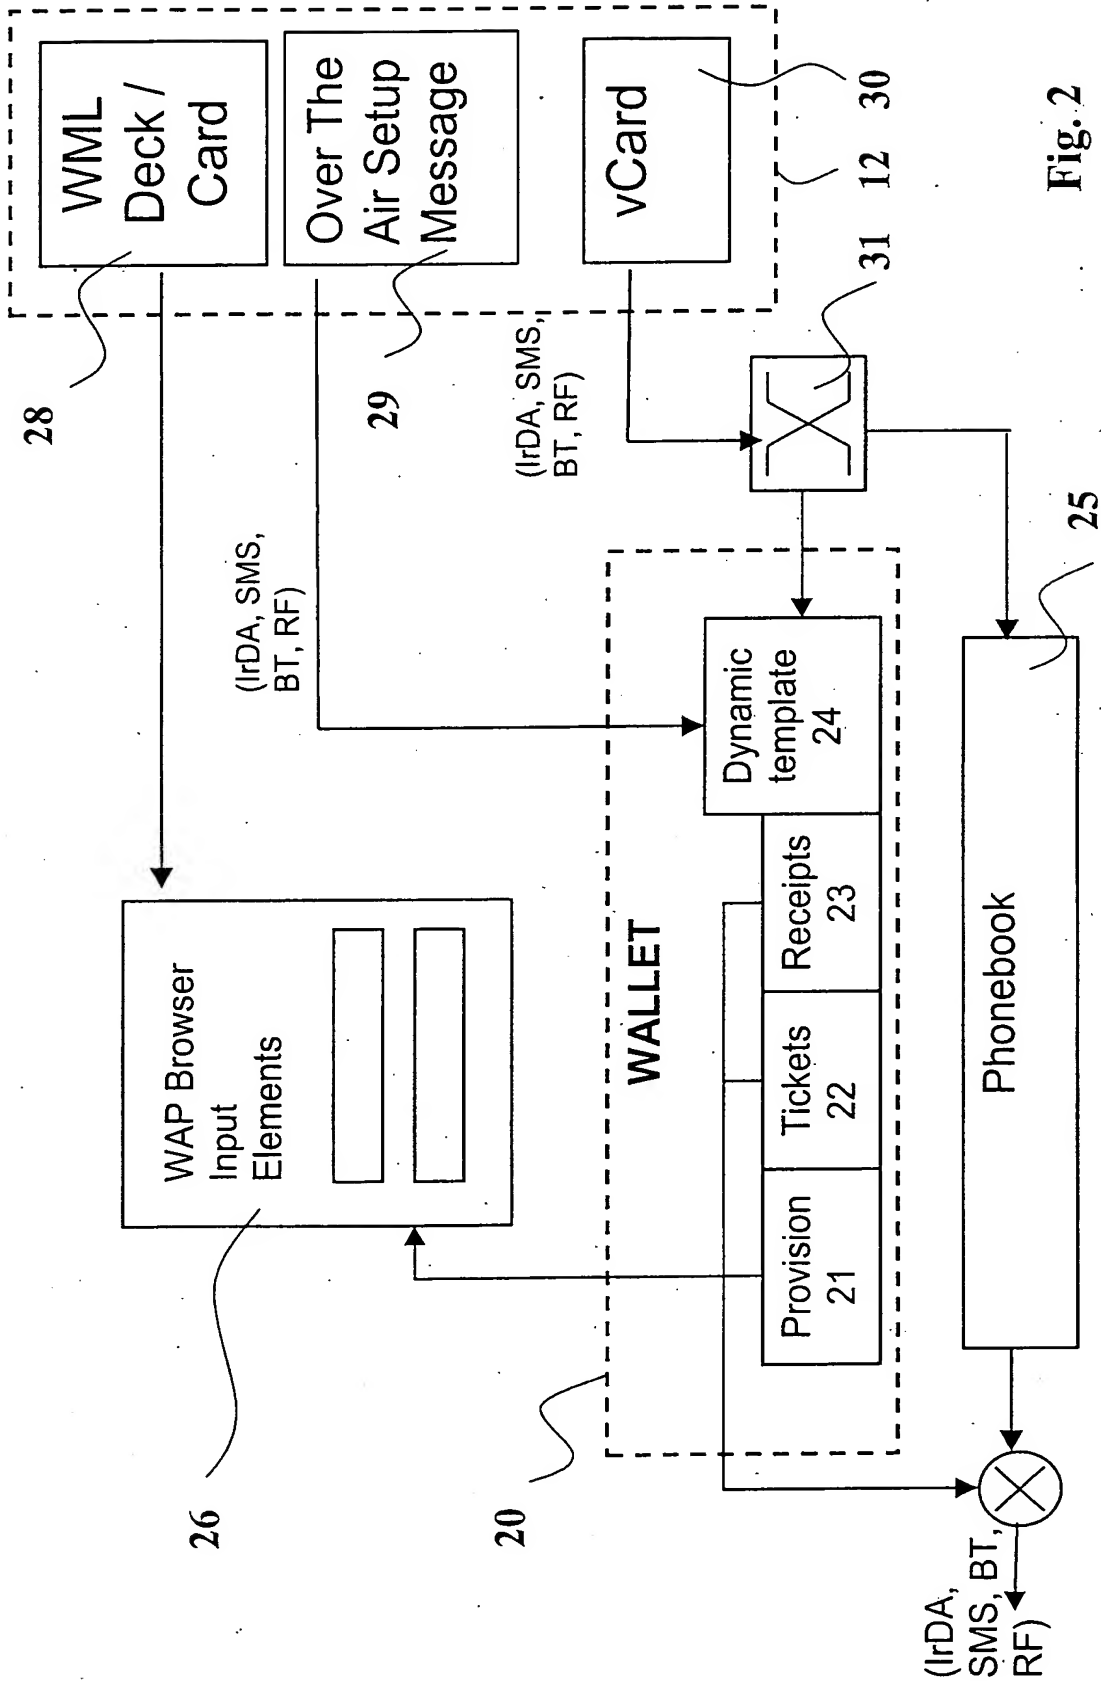

Fig. 2

Request for a modification of the transaction data processing means of a mobile station from a management function

Generate a message including information required for the requested modification and transmit the message to the mobile station

Receive the message at the mobile station and direct the message to the transaction data processing means

Modify the transaction data processing means in response to the message

Use the modified transaction data processing means for a transaction

Fig. 3